

Housing Court

Judicial Forum 2010

Meet the Judges of the Housing Court

Why attend?

MCLE is pleased to convene—for the first time—the Housing Court Judicial Forum 2010. Hear Judges from the divisions of the Court participate in a frank dialogue with attending practitioners and review key issues confronting Housing Court practice today—including discussion of the effectiveness of policies and programs implemented over the last several years.

Under the guidance of an experienced practitioner, the panel also reviews significant developments in regulatory and case law which may affect your practice in the Housing Court.

This Forum offers you a unique opportunity to gain valuable practical insight into judicial discretion in the Housing Court. Attendees have the unique opportunity to ask the panel questions and hear directly from the Judges on how to better prepare and try cases. Don't miss this valuable opportunity to participate in this important dialogue with members of the Housing Court.
