

Crimmigration 101

Learn to navigate the murky waters where criminal law and immigration consequences intersect

"Help! My husband has just been detained by ICE. I don't know what to do!" We've all gotten these calls from our clients. Their mother, brother, husband, or child has just been detained by Immigration and they have no idea what to do next. Where is the client? Where will they be taken? What happens next? What are the client's rights?

"Hey counsel, just so you know, that guy has a detainer from ICE." When the court officer tells you this at the arraignment, it could change your entire strategy for how to argue bail and how to effectively and zealously protect your client's interests. Should you argue to have him held in state custody? Or should you try to get him into federal immigration custody? What are the pros and cons, and what should your analysis be?

This seminar focuses on some of the fundamentals of what do to when your client encounters the immigration consequences of criminal charges. If you represent non-citizen criminal defendants this seminar is for you!
