25 Critical Cases Every Criminal Lawyer Must Know

Get the essential foundation you need and be on the forefront of what is trending

This isn't just Miranda v. Arizona and Terry v. Ohio; we know you went to law school. However, if you are practicing in the district or superior courts of Massachusetts, these are the cases with which you must be familiar. In every practice, the ability to anticipate and comprehend the important legal issues of the day is grounded in an understanding of foundational cases and an appreciation of trending authority. Join MCLE's all-star faculty for a summary and analysis of Massachusetts criminal case law that you must be fluent in to practice successfully in the Commonwealth. These cases cover a variety of topics, governing your practice from pretrial matters through sentencing hearings, and this roundtable program provides direct access to the expert panelists in a highly-focused setting.

The seminar is designed to benefit prosecutors and defense attorneys alike, and participants leave with a balanced understanding of those cases that are the foundation of any criminal lawyer's practice. Learn how these cases shape the law—and how to use them in your practice.

Mandatory CLE credits

Individual attorneys are responsible for checking with their particular state CLE accreditation authority about whether and how much credit will be granted. Although MCLE does not pursue state-based credit, MCLE programs are regularly approved in many jurisdictions. It is the responsibility of the individual attorney to submit the information and certifications required under the respective state rule to the appropriate authorities in the jurisdictions in which they seek credit.

Depending on the jurisdiction, lawyers can satisfy their mandatory CLE requirements online with MCLE's webcasts, which feature periodic attendance prompts, electronic written materials, and the opportunity to receive a certificate of attendance.

If your plans change

If you're unable to participate in a program on the date for which you registered, you will receive an email about how to access the program on demand via webcast and/or downloadable mp3 file, including the written materials in electronic form, in full satisfaction of the tuition paid. If you prefer a refund, let us know by the end of the business day prior to the program and we'll refund your tuition after deducting a $35 processing fee. Note that limited enrollment programs are an exception, cancellation of which require two weeks notice and are subject to a $55 processing fee.
