

What All Lawyers Need to Know About Cybersecurity Insurance

Scope of policies, typical exclusions and mitigation measures

As the daily news headlines around the world continue to fill with reports of ransomware attacks, cryptocurrency exploits, and data breaches of all sorts, lawyers must prepare to counsel their clients through the intricate web of cybersecurity insurance questions. This new webcast explains the types of insurance available, the steps lawyers should advise businesses to take to manage their cyber risk profile, and the issues purchasers of cyber insurance should consider. The expert speaker uses case scenarios and hypotheticals to bring these important issues to life.

Agenda

- Overview of Cybersecurity Insurance
- Scope of Different Cybersecurity Insurance Policies
- Typical Cybersecurity Insurance Exclusions
- Effective Measures for Mitigating Cybersecurity Risk Profiles
- Best Practices in Preparing for a Cybersecurity Event

Speaker

Policies and Information

Register early!

For course agendas, hours, fees, and discounts, please refer to the respective seminar pages. The fee includes program instruction and all electronic written materials unless otherwise noted.

To gain early access to online materials, please register in advance of the program.

Upon registration, MCLE will e-mail a confirmation.

Day-of-the-program registrations are welcome, with the exception of limited enrollment programs, or as otherwise noted.

We accept cash, checks, MasterCard, Visa, American Express, and Discover.

Need special assistance?

If you are a person with a disability or special needs, please let us know in advance so that we can make your experience as convenient and comfortable as possible. Call Customer Service at 800-966-6253 to make arrangements.

For your convenience, MCLE also offers closed captioning  and verbatim transcripts of all recorded webcast programs, available to you online two weeks after the original program date.

Mandatory CLE credits

Individual attorneys are responsible for checking with their particular state CLE accreditation authority about whether and how much credit will be granted. Although MCLE does not pursue state-based credit, MCLE programs are regularly approved in many jurisdictions. It is the responsibility of the individual attorney to submit the information and certifications required under the respective state rule to the appropriate authorities in the jurisdictions in which they seek credit.

Depending on the jurisdiction, lawyers can satisfy their mandatory CLE requirements online with MCLE's webcasts, which feature periodic attendance prompts, electronic written materials, and the opportunity to receive a certificate of attendance.

If your plans change

If you're unable to participate in a program on the date for which you registered, you will receive an email about how to access the program on demand via webcast and/or downloadable mp3 file, including the written materials in electronic form, in full satisfaction of the tuition paid. If you prefer a refund, let us know by the end of the business day prior to the program and we'll refund your tuition after deducting a $35 processing fee. Note that limited enrollment programs are an exception, cancellation of which require two weeks notice and are subject to a $55 processing fee.

New lawyer discounts—always the lowest price

For the first three years of practice, MCLE offers new lawyers a 25% discount on all of its products, including programs, books, audio CDs and mp3 recordings. If you were admitted to the bar after 2018, take advantage of the new lawyer prices listed throughout the catalog.

Pending admittees, law students and paralegals are also eligible for a 25% discount on most MCLE programs.

Attorney scholarships

Attorneys with financial need who certify that they are unable to attend a program without financial aid may request a partial tuition scholarship in confidence by writing or emailing scholarships@mcle.org at least two weeks in advance of the program.
