

Handling the Sale of a Business

Understand the steps necessary to effectively represent a client in the sale of a business

Selling a business can be the culmination of a client's life's work. Effectively representing a client during this stressful time can be daunting. The key to a successful outcome is understanding your client's goals and objectives, preparing the business for sale at an early stage, and completing each stage of the transaction with your client's ultimate objectives in mind. It is not necessary to win each negotiation battle along the way, as long as the war is eventually won. Knowing in advance what to expect, and preparing a response, is critical to a smooth and successful transaction. Learn how to masterfully chart the path in this new 1-hour webcast!

Mandatory CLE credits

Individual attorneys are responsible for checking with their particular state CLE accreditation authority about whether and how much credit will be granted. Although MCLE does not pursue state-based credit, MCLE programs are regularly approved in many jurisdictions. It is the responsibility of the individual attorney to submit the information and certifications required under the respective state rule to the appropriate authorities in the jurisdictions in which they seek credit.

Depending on the jurisdiction, lawyers can satisfy their mandatory CLE requirements online with MCLE's webcasts, which feature periodic attendance prompts, electronic written materials, and the opportunity to receive a certificate of attendance.

If your plans change

If you're unable to participate in a program on the date for which you registered, you will receive an email about how to access the program on demand via webcast and/or downloadable mp3 file, including the written materials in electronic form, in full satisfaction of the tuition paid. If you prefer a refund, let us know by the end of the business day prior to the program and we'll refund your tuition after deducting a $35 processing fee. Note that limited enrollment programs are an exception, cancellation of which require two weeks notice and are subject to a $55 processing fee.
