Criminal Superior Court Judicial Forum 2022

Insight into judicial perspective on difficult issues faced by prosecutors and defense counsel in criminal cases

Practice in the Superior Court has become more challenging with new statutes and rules, recent appellate decisions, and sophisticated trial advocacy techniques. Judges have dealt with the issues in various ways, and they are given broad discretion to do so. This program identifies the factors which our judicial panelists consider in reaching decisions and includes practice tips for attorneys on both sides of the case.

Attorneys of all experience levels benefit from hearing directly from the Judges in this fast-paced format. Don't miss this opportunity to gain invaluable insight into judicial perspective and be better prepared the next time you walk into court!
