

Permitting & Development for Small & Medium-Sized Projects

Stages of the process, roles of the players and traps for the unwary

Get insight into the permitting and development of small and medium-sized projects presented in a case study format. Understand the roles and responsibilities of different players in the project, including zoning counsel, developer's counsel, title counsel, and lender's counsel. The panelists explain the stages of a development project, and share valuable lessons learned from the trenches to help you avoid traps for the unwary. Develop and hone your skill set.

Agenda

- Navigating the Permitting Process
