

Best Practices & Pitfalls in Attorney Fee Structures

Flat fees, hourly, contingency, oh my!

Fee agreements can come in many shapes and forms. But no matter what fee structure you select, you must ensure you are complying with ethical rules and protecting yourself. This program explains the various types of fee agreement structures that exist while delineating the best practices and pitfalls inherent in each type of fee structure. You also receive sample fee agreements for reference.

So how do you pick the best fee agreement structure? Are there ethical considerations when it comes to which fee agreement structure to use? Should you address what happens if there is a fee dispute? Does your practice area impact what fee agreement structure is most appropriate? Hear the faculty explore the answers to all of these questions and more.

Join our experts as we discuss the different types of fee agreement structures and how to choose the best one for both you and your client. Register today to secure your spot in a program not to be missed!
