Housing Court Interim Standing Order 1-23: Putting Words into Action

Learn how to navigate Housing Court under the new Standing Order

On April 3, 2023, the Chief Justice of the Housing Court issued a new Interim Standing Order as approved by the Chief Justice of the Trial Court, which replaced the previous Standing Order dealing with temporary modifications to the Court process. Join us online for this fast-track program with the Clerk Magistrates from the various divisions, discussing how the Court plans to put these modifications into effect, following its effective date of June 5, 2023. Understand how it can affect your actions in representing your client, including the consequences for failing to comply with these interim requirements. Bring your questions and join the dialogue!
