MCLE is pleased to offer this program to an in-person audience at our Boston conference center in addition to the live and recorded webcasts. Masks are encouraged.

MCLE is pleased to present its twenty-sixth annual comprehensive Conference developed exclusively for family law practitioners! This year's Family Law Conference, featuring leading practitioners, experts, and judges, examines a number of sophisticated issues and provides timely, practical information for all levels of practice. Conference highlights include sessions on alimony and child support, civility, and cryptocurrency.

Also included are the annual case law review, an update on the state of the Probate and Family Court from Chief Justice Casey, wisdom and guidance from seasoned practitioners, and an opportunity to learn about cases involving children who resist/refuse parenting time.
