MANDATORY Probate & Family Court Category AA Training for those Seeking to Be Professional Parenting Time Supervisors

A program for social workers, teachers, or other professionals who have worked with children

The Massachusetts Probate & Family Court is seeking Professional Parenting Time Supervisors (PPTS). A PPTS is an individual who has experience working with children, can supervise parenting time events, and meets the qualifications in the Guidelines for Professional Parenting Time Supervisors.

We encourage interested professionals to review the Guidelines for Professional Parenting Time Supervisors and take this mandatory court training so you can submit an application to the Probate and Family Court for consideration.

NOTE: Social workers and other non-attorneys qualify for 50% off the regular program price. See options in shopping cart or contact Customer Service at 800-966-6253.

NOTE: To obtain credits to be considered for the Category AA application, you must choose the "Prompts" option when you click the link to begin the live webcast, the recorded webcast, and the on-demand webcast and click all prompts as they appear during the program.
